

For more resources and information about Día, please visit <http://dia.ala.org>.

You have been told stories all your life. Someone who loves you reads you stories written by authors to entertain you and help you learn to read. You can also write your own stories! Sit back and imagine the sights, smells, tastes, and sounds of a special fiesta or party.

Title: _____

Written by: _____

My name is _____ and I live in _____. I'm getting ready to go to a party to celebrate Día.

The party will be held at (your city) _____ Library and (name three of your friends) _____, _____, _____ are going too!

The librarian has many activities planned for the party, including (describe activities like Storytellers, book sharing, or a puppet show) _____. Later in the day we will play a game, including (describe some games like the breaking of a pinata, pin the tail on the donkey, a soccer game): _____.

Along with the fun activities, there will be good food. There will be (cake, cookies, fruit) _____ served and to drink there might be (fruit punch, soda, milk) _____.

At the end of the party, comes the best part. All the children who attend the party will get to choose a book to take home and keep. I think I'll try to choose a book about (fill in a topic like dinosaurs, trains, pets, or a farm) _____.

I think it will be a fun party. When I get home, I will sit in my favorite chair and read my new book until I fall asleep. I love reading and I can't wait for Día!

Draw a picture to illustrate your story.